Microsoft Azure AI

INSTRUCTOR SPOTLIGHT

Mike Johns Entrepreneurship classes

Mike Johns wants to talk about the future. And if you did not know better, you might think this conversation was a pitch session for the latest science fiction Hollywood blockbuster. Instead, Johns wants to educate the Las Vegas community about the importance of the symbiotic relationship between humans and technology, specifically artificial intelligence (AI). Science fiction has become science fact and he wants to prepare UNLV for the future.

Originating from Los Angeles, California, Johns pursued his education at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV). His tenure here as the Entertainment and Program Director laid the foundation for his foray into the entertainment industry. Leveraging his role, he curated a diverse array of events encompassing hip-hop, country music, EDM, and rock, earning recognition from record labels.

Following his graduation, Johns embarked on a remarkable journey, beginning with an opportunity in the music industry where he ascended to the position of Marketing Director, orchestrating innovative campaigns and immersed himself in the burgeoning mobile content industry. Johns' pivotal role in pioneering mobile content for T-Mobile's Sidekick device catapulted him into the realm of digital innovation.

It was the advent of ringtones that marked a turning point in Johns' career trajectory, leading him to traverse the realms of augmented reality (AR), virtual reality

(VR), and blockchain technology. Amidst the COVID-19 pandemic, the emergence of non-fungible tokens (NFTs) revolutionized the digital landscape, with Johns actively involved in navigating this transformative shift.

Johns exemplifies the fusion of creativity and technological acumen. Over the course of his journey, Johns realized he needed to emphasize the symbiotic relationship between humans and technology, advocating for a nuanced understanding of AI, robotics, and automation. As this is a burgeoning field still in its infancy, Johns approached UNLV Continuing Education to work together in educating both people in the current workforce and students who are about to join them.

By addressing concerns surrounding the future of the workplaces in Las Vegas, Johns underscores the potential for innovation to usher in new opportunities, provided individuals possess the requisite skills. As society grapples with the implications of technological advancement, he emphasizes the importance of future literacy. Drawing parallels between weather forecasting and personal foresight, he underscores the necessity of equipping individuals with the tools to navigate uncertainty. It is this expertise that Johns wants to impart on the students at UNLV Continuing Education, which can translate to technological gains for the city of Las Vegas.

Mike Johns's narrative lands directly at the intersection of innovation, entrepreneurship, and social responsibility. His journey serves as a testament to the transformative power of technology when harnessed responsibly, underscoring the need to embrace future literacy in shaping a more equitable and sustainable relationship with our digital creations.

Introduction to Print on Demand (Clothing, Wall Art & Goods)

Print on Demand (POD) is the process of printing your digital designs as the orders come in, rather than stockpiling large amounts of pre-printed materials. POD allows printing in small quantities and reduces waste from unsold products. Thousands of designers, entrepreneurs, and side hustlers are selling everything from books, clothing, household items, jewelry, and more using print on demand as their business model. But how does POD work? How much does it cost? What do you need to get started? Where do you sell your products? All these questions and more will be answered in this course.

This unique program can also prepare qualified students for a career as a certified interpreter for any industry that needs to serve individuals with limited English skills, including government agencies, corporations, hospitals and telecoms. Bilingual persons already employed in another capacity can increase their skills and their remuneration with this formal interpreting certification. Visit ced.unlv.edu/legal-interpretation or call 702-895-3394 for more information.

PREREQUISITE: Students must have at least a high school diploma, GED, or equivalent. Students must provide proof of proficiency in both English and Spanish at least three business days prior to starting program coursework. Please plan ahead. Options for proof of proficiency are listed on the program website, ced.unlv.edu/legal-interpretation.

In this class, you will receive a thorough introduction into the American court system; you will learn legal terminology, court proceedings, and the ethics of court interpreting. This course is approved for 12 CE credits with the Supreme Court of Nevada: Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC). Required Textbook(s): The Bilingual Courtroom (ISBN: 9780226043784).

Legal Consecutive Interpreting I

Prepare to take the Certified Court Interpreter test by studying and practicing the basic strategies utilized while interpreting in the consecutive mode. In consecutive interpretation, the interpreter listens to an oral statement in a source language and then renders it in the target language. This course will focus on skills critical to consecutive interpretation, including techniques to improve memorization, note taking, and recalling lengthy segments of verbal utterances. Interpreters must be able to mentally interpret the statement, normalize the segment, and render it in the target language in its entirety while maintaining the same register and staying in compliance with the Code of Ethics for Certified Court Interpreters. This course is approved for 12 CE credits with the Supreme Court of Nevada: Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC). Required Textbook(s): ACEBO-Edge 21: Consecutive Interpreting (ISBN: 9781880594377).

Prerequisite: Introduction to Legal Interpreting or have similar working knowledge and experience. Must provide proof of proficiency in both English and Spanish at least three business days prior to starting program coursework.

It is normally the first step before learning the techniques of simultaneous interpreting. You will receive an introduction to the three most common legal interpreting modes (consecutive interpreting, simultaneous interpreting, and sight translation), learn the techniques to be able to sight translate, and be able to practice those techniques using real documents. This course is approved for 12 CE credits with the Supreme Court of Nevada: Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC). Required Textbook(s): Edge 21: Sight Translation (ISBN: 9781880594414).

Effectively use cannabis in your cooking! This course is intended to empower someone of any cooking skill level to learn to process cannabis in their kitchen to enjoy and benefit from cannabinoid-infused food and drinks. They also typically only contain one or two isolated cannabis compounds such as THC and CBD. This course will help individuals to learn to extract active ingredients from the whole plant, making use of all that nature has made available, and then incorporate extracts into appetizers, entrees, desserts, beverages, and condiments.

When you register for this class, you are attesting that you meet the age requirement and acknowledge that you may be required to provide proof at some point during the course. Basic Life Support Certification

Basic Life Support (BLS) comprises essential emergency measures to sustain life in cardiac arrest, respiratory failure, or other life-threatening situations. It involves recognizing emergencies, administering CPR, and offering basic airway management. Typically performed by trained professionals or bystanders, BLS is crucial until advanced medical care is available.

BLS is essential in events like choking, suffocation, drowning, severe allergic reactions, drug overdose, and trauma. These scenarios demand BLS interventions to restart breathing, revive the heart, and maintain life until professional medical assistance is obtained.

UNLV Continuing Education Units (CEUs)

UNLV Continuing Education awards Continuing Education Units (CEUs) for many of its professional development and certificate program courses. The International Association for Continuing Education and Training (IACET) and the U.S. Department of Education task force defines the CEU standard of measurement as: 1 CEU = 10 contact hours of participation in an organized continuing education\training experience, delivered under responsible sponsorship, capable direction, and qualified instruction. UNLV CEUs are calculated based on this nationally recognized formula; however, other organizations such as licensing boards may convert CEUs into other measurements such as Professional Development Hours (PDH) or Continuing Education Credits (CEC). Students should consult with their specific licensing board or industry regulating body to confirm how UNLV CEUs can meet their training requirements.

For more information on CEUs, visit: www.iacet.org/standards/continuing-education-unit-ceu/about-the-ceu
